EMPOWERING WOMEN FOR SUCCESS

The Unleashing Potential: Empowering Women for Success Dialogue will equip women in the Pacific Islands with knowledge, inspiration, and confidence to pursue their goals and succeed in their business endeavours. The dialogue will provide a unique opportunity to learn from a dynamic speaker and entrepreneur, discussing practical tips, strategies, and tools in order to empower women in business. The dialogue aims to engage in meaningful discussions and encourage personal and professional growth among participants.

CATHERINE FRITZ-KALISH:

Catherine Fritz-Kalish is the Co-founder and Managing Director of Global Access Partners (GAP), an esteemed policy institute in Sydney. With her guidance, GAP has grown to be highly influential with a global network of 4,000+ members and 1,000+ active participants in its initiatives. Through the 'Second Track' program, GAP fosters strategic debates on critical social, economic, and structural issues, driving policy implementation and new economic opportunities. Catherine is also Director at ICDP, a non-political organisation promoting Australia-Pacific relations, and serves on the Board of the ICDP Foundation, supporting development initiatives in the Pacific region.
